

Delivering residential automation

Cost: Free

Ideal for: Architects, product specifiers, electrical contractors, electrical consulting engineers

Course duration: 1 hour

Location: Seminars can be carried out at our Birmingham head office, Legrand Training Centre, Great King Street North, Birmingham, B19 2LF, or delivered at client premises anywhere in the UK

Course Content

SEMINAR OVERVIEW

An introduction to residential automation, specifically considering entertainment, control, comfort, security and energy saving functionality.

At the end of the seminar, delegates will have an understanding of:

- The rise in popularity of these type of systems
- Function integration and compatibility
- Smart metering and energy saving

SEMINAR CONTENT

- Why residential automation? - Client and market demand
- Home systems functions - smart home
- Open system
- How does this fit in the home?
- Control
- Smart metering and energy saving
- Case study example
- Regulations and Standards
- Q&A
- Further study and learning

Related Courses

INTERNET OF THINGS (IOT) - REAL LIFE APPLICATIONS

This presentation addresses real life examples of the Internet of Things and explores how IoT technologies and innovations will impact our daily lives both now and in the future.

DIGITAL REVOLUTION - WHAT CAN AUTOMATION DELIVER?

An introduction to automation, specifically considering entertainment, control, comfort, security and energy saving functionality.

SPECIFIER'S GUIDE TO DOOR ENTRY SYSTEMS

An overview of the issues specifiers of door entry systems need to consider when designing these kinds of security systems.

